

Internal Practices and Policies Regarding Lobbying and Political Activities

Political contributions and dealings with government officials are subject to review and oversight by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of eBay Inc.'s Board of Directors. eBay Inc.'s General Counsel and its Vice President & Deputy General Counsel of Government Relations have executive management responsibility of political contributions and dealings with government officials.

With respect to eBay Inc.'s Political Action Committee (PAC), The Committee for Responsible Internet Commerce:

- eBay's PAC is controlled by an Executive Committee of the eBay PAC's Board of Directors
- eBay's PAC is further subject to review and oversight of the eBay PAC's Board of Directors. The PAC Board of Directors is made up of U.S. employees from across the company.
- The Executive Committee of the eBay PAC reviews, revises and approves the eBay PAC plan annually.
- The eBay PAC plan is then presented to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of eBay Inc.'s Board of Directors by the Vice President & Deputy General Counsel of Government Relations.

With respect to political contributions by eBay Inc.:

- eBay Inc., on occasion and where permissible, makes contributions to state and local candidates or committees using corporate funds.
- Corporate funds are used because eBay's PAC is a federal PAC, which has limited resources due to limits on the amount a person may contribute to the PAC, prohibitions on corporate contributions to the PAC and a very limited class of individuals from which the PAC may lawfully solicit contributions.
- The Government Relations Corporate Contribution Plan is presented to and approved by the Executive Committee of the eBay PAC and the Director of State Government Relations.
- The Plan is then presented to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of eBay Inc.'s Board of Directors by the Vice President & Deputy General Counsel of Government Relations.

Note: These Practices & Policies are current as of July 2009.
